

English in use for "Doctors"

HOURS

30

ATTENDEES

10

CONTENT

- The Basics: parts of the body, functions, health and illness.
- Medical and paramedical personnel: practitioners, nurses, health professionals.
- Places: hospitals, clinic, GP's.
- Medical training: medical education in the UK, medical qualifications, programmes.
- Diseases and symptoms: talking about problems and symptoms, types of diseases.
- Basic investigations and tests: laboratory tests, endoscopy, X-ray, CT. MRI, ECG and ultrasound.
- Medical treatments: prescriptions, surgical treatments, therapies.
- Discussing treatments: advising, warnings.
- Medical Ethics: guidelines.
- Preparing presentations and conferences: data presentation, research articles, presentation structure, case study.

CONCEPT & GOALS

- To improve reading and comprehension of medical journals and textbooks.
- To improve the learners' ability in writing letters and memoranda.
- To strengthen the speaking skills to become more fluent in meetings, presentations, interviews and discussions.

TARGETS

- Medical students and doctors.
- Interpreters and translators wishing to learn specific terms.
- B2 level of English required

COURSE STRUCTURE

30-hour course, articulated in 15 2-hour lessons

CERTIFICATION

At the end of the course a certificate of participation will be issued

HOW TO REGISTER

Directly on our website: www.global2evolution.com or send us an email at: training@global2evolution.com

PRICE

from 420,00 € (+ VAT)

for more information visit our website

LEARN ENGLISH

